

SEIMA

For decades, we've been partnering with merchants to deliver quality kitchen, laundry and bathroom ware to thousands of builders, project developers, architects, designers and other volume consumers.

Whether your consumer is a home builder, project developer or an architect, we understand the importance of consistency and efficiency. From ensuring our supply chain has the required volume of products needed by your consumers - compliant in design aesthetics, quality and delivery times—to backing you with exceptional after-sales service, we are a partner you, and your consumers, can confidently trust. Every time.